4. REQUEST FOR CONTINUED PROCESSING

The request for continued processing concerns a missed time limit in connection with an irregularity notification relating to the following (check the box that applies):

☐ An international application, including missing or insufficient payment of fees (Rule 11(2) or (3), or Rule 12(7)).

☐ The recording of a license, including missing or insufficient payment of fees (Rule 20*bis*(2)).

☐ A subsequent designation, including missing or insufficient payment of fees (Rule 24(5)(b)).

☐ The recording of a change of ownership, a limitation, a renunciation or a change in the name, address or legal nature of the holder, a cancellation of the international registration, or change in name of address of the representative, including missing or insufficient payment of fees (Rule 26(2)).

☐ The recording of the division of an international registration relating to missing or insufficient fees (Rule 27*bis*(3)(c)).

☐ The payment of the second part of the individual fee (Rule 34(3)(c)(iii)).

☐ A request that an international registration continues its effects in a successor State, including missing or insufficient payment of fees (Rule 39(1)).

Please note that the requirements in respect of which the respective time limit was missed need to be complied with at the time of submitting this request (including the payment of any outstanding fees).

[1] Where the international application or the international registration is jointly owned, indicate the names of each joint applicant (as indicated in the international application) or each joint holder (as recorded in the international registration) here.
